

Claim # 163 Jimmy Worrior (possibly Warner)

Claim No. 163.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 14th June 1866.
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Jimmy Worrior, Aged 38. a Freedman of the Creek Nation and Widow of Sam Yarger ("Blacksmith Sam") dec'd.
being duly sworn and examined, deposes and says:
Whilst living, with her husband, on their place about ten miles from North Fork Tonn. Creek Nation, and sometime in August 1863, she fled from and abandoned her home in consequence of the presence of Quantrill's band of Guerrillas, who had massacred her husband on Pecan Creek; that she went to the Refugee Camp at Gibson, and remained until the close of the war, when she returned to the Creek Nation. Further that she, jointly with her deceased husband, owned and possessed & necessarily abandoned and lost all the property hereinafter enumerated, and never afterwards recovered the same, or any part thereof. To say:

1 One horse $60. 5 Sheep. $30.	$90.00
14 Fourteen Cattle $140. 60 hogs $300	1440.00

The undersigned, Cow Tom, a Freeman of Color, and Jesse Franklin, a Freedman of the Creek Nation, being jointly sworn and examined, do depose and say, They are not interested in the claim of Jinney Warrior, in any manner whatever; that they have heard the foregoing affidavit read to them, and know its content, to be true and correct, and that the claimant, and her dec'd husband did jointly, own and possess, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property stated in her deposition, and finally, that the said Jinney is the sole legal claimant to the estate of her said deceased husband.

Award

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also, the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Horses.-	$30.00 Each.
Cattle.-	5.00 ..
Sheep.-	2.00 ..
Hogs.-	2.00 ..
Corn, per bushel.	.50 ..

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

House & Kitchen furniture &c.-	$17.50.
Farming implements & Tools.-	12.50

In consideration of these, and all other facts, attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Jimmey Warrior Four hundred and thirty five dollars.
